Case No.: 4:19-cv-01231-JSW

[PROPOSED] CONSENT DECREE

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC or Commission) brought this action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. (Title VII) to correct alleged unlawful employment practices on the basis of national origin (Afghan), and to provide appropriate relief to Charging Party Ayesha Faiz. The EEOC alleged that Defendant Fidelity Home Energy, Inc. (Fidelity), engaged in unlawful discrimination by subjecting Ms. Faiz to 1 a hostile work environment on the basis of her national origin and constructively discharging her in 2 violation of Title VII. The EEOC alleges that Defendant NorCal Home Systems, Inc. (NorCal), is the

 3 successor to Fidelity. Fidelity filed a Certificate of Dissolution on September 29, 2019. The EEOC
 4 alleges that NorCal continued the business operations of Fidelity without disruption with NorCal
 5 retaining the majority of Fidelity's employees, customers, databases, and assets. The EEOC filed an 6 Amended Complaint on December 20, 2019 to join NorCal based on successor liability. Fidelity and
 7 NorCal deny that NorCal is a successor entity, that they are liable for any of the claims contained in 8 the First Amended Complaint, or that they have violated Title VII. All parties agree that Faiz was 9 never employed by NorCal.

10 In the interest of resolving this matter the EEOC, and Defendants Fidelity Home Energy, Inc.
 11 and NorCal Home Systems, Inc. (Defendants), (collectively, Parties) have agreed that this lawsuit
 12 should be finally resolved by entry of this Consent Decree and without further contested litigation,
 13 costs and expenses.

14 The Court has reviewed this Consent Decree considering the pleadings, the record herein,
 15 and the applicable law, and now approves this Consent Decree.

16 II. PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF THE CONSENT DECREE

17 A. This Consent Decree (Decree) shall be binding on and enforceable against 18 Defendants, their management (including all officers, managerial and supervisory employees),
 19 agents, successors and assigns.

20 B. The Parties have entered into this Decree in order to:

- 21 1. Provide appropriate monetary and injunctive relief;
- 22 2. Ensure that NorCal's employment practices comply with Title VII;
- 23 3. Ensure a work environment at NorCal free from discrimination, harassment
 24 and retaliation;
- 25 4. Ensure training for NorCal's employees, including officers, managers,
 26 supervisors, and human resources employees with respect to their obligations
 27 and rights under Title VII;
- 28

5. Ensure that NorCal's policies and procedures shall be conducted in a manner that does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of their national origin.

C. This Decree is intended to resolve disputed claims.

III. SCOPE OF RESOLUTION

A. This Decree completely and finally resolves all claims made by the EEOC in its First Amended Complaint filed in the United States District Court, Northern District of California on December 20, 2019, in the action captioned U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission et al., vs. Fidelity Home Energy, Inc., et al.; Case No. 4:19-cv-01231-JSW (hereafter Action).

B. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude the EEOC from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in the event that Defendants fail to comply with the applicable terms of the Decree.

C. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to limit or reduce Defendants' obligation to comply fully with Title VII or any other federal employment statute.

D. This Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to bring, process, investigate or litigate other charges that may be in existence or that may later arise against Defendants, in accordance with standard EEOC procedures.

IV. JURISDICTION

A. The Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and the subject matter of this Action. The Amended Complaint asserts claims that, if proven, would authorize the Court to grant the relief set forth in this Decree. The terms and provisions of this Decree are fair, reasonable, and just. This Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and does not derogate the rights or privileges of any person.

B. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this Action for the duration of the Decree for the purposes of entering all orders, judgments and decrees that may be necessary to fully implement the relief provided herein.

V. EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

A. The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective immediately on the date that this Decree is entered by the Court (Effective Date).

The EEOC shall provide the address to Defendants no later than ten (10) days after the Effective Date. Defendants will provide a copy of the checks including an accounting of any payroll withholdings or other deductions, to EEOC counsel of record, at EEOC-SFDO_COMPLIANCE@eoc.gov on the same day that it mails the checks to Ms. Faiz.

D. Defendants shall send the Attorney's fees Sum in a check made payable to Legal Aid at Work for attorneys' fees and costs, and reported on an IRS Form 1099-MISC with payment reported under box 14, "Gross Proceeds Paid to an Attorney." 180 Montgomery Street, Suite 600, San Francisco, CA 94104, attention Marisa Díaz;

E. Defendants will not condition the receipt of monetary relief on Ms. Faiz's agreement to: (a) maintain as confidential the facts and/or allegations underlying her charge and the Amended Complaint and the terms of this Consent Decree; (b) waive her statutory right to file a charge with any government agency; or (c) not reapply for employment.

VII. GENERAL INJUNCTIVE RELIEF: NON-DISCRIMINATION

A. Upon entry of this Decree, Defendants and their officers, agents, employees, and successors and assigns are enjoined from engaging in any of the following unlawful conduct: (a) discriminating against or subjecting any employee to a hostile work environment based on national origin; and (b) requiring or permitting any employee to reject or screen out a customer or potential customer on the basis of their race, color, religion, sex or national origin or perceived race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

B. During the duration of the Decree, NorCal will provide prior written notice to any potential purchaser of NorCal's businesses, or a purchaser or transferee of all or a portion of NorCal's assets, and to any other potential successor, of the EEOC's lawsuit, the allegations raised in the Amended Complaint, and the existence and contents of this Consent Decree.

(c) a requirement that officers, supervisors and managers are required to actively monitor employees' compliance with the company's anti-discrimination or anti-hostile work environment policies, and to report any incidents and/or complaints of discrimination, hostile work environment and/or retaliation that they observe, or of which they become aware;

(d) an internal complaint procedure; and

3. The internal complaint procedure shall, at a minimum, clearly state that:

The Honorable Jeffrey S. White
United States District Court Judge

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

A federal agency called the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and Fidelity Home Energy, Inc. and NorCal Home Systems, Inc. have resolved a lawsuit by the EEOC involving allegations that Fidelity subjected a former employee to a hostile work environment on the basis of her national origin by requiring/permitting discrimination against potential customers of the same perceived national origin. The title of the lawsuit is: U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission vs. Fidelity Home Energy, Inc. and NorCal Home Systems, Inc. et al; Case No. 4:19-cv-01231-JSW. The lawsuit was filed at the San Francisco Federal Courthouse. This notice is being posted by order of the Court to settle the lawsuit.

The EEOC alleges NorCal Home Systems, Inc. is a successor entity to Fidelity Home Energy, Inc. and is responsible for taking remedial measures to resolve the allegations in the lawsuit. Fidelity Home Energy, Inc. and NorCal Home Systems, Inc. deny that NorCal Home Systems is the successor to Fidelity Home Energy.

Pursuant to the settlement, Defendants have agreed to institute additional policies and procedures to prevent discrimination or a hostile work environment. Defendants will also provide additional training for supervisors and managers to make sure there is no unfair treatment in the workplace.

If you have any questions or complaints of harassment, you can follow the complaint process in your handbook, or you can contact the EEOC. The EEOC is the federal agency that protects employees from sexual harassment, retaliation and unfair treatment. Talking to the EEOC is free and the agency has employees who speak different languages including English, ASL, Spanish and many other languages.
